NO END IN SIGHT

Friday, November 20, 2020 to Saturday, February 20, 2021

Curated by Charlie J Meyers (@curatorwithamigraine) with writing by Sarah Rose Jansen.

The bodies we must exist in affect every aspect of our lives. The societal norms around them--how they should look, feel, eat, have sex, move, age--are some of the most deeply entrenched we navigate.

The six artists of No End In Sight all work with the idea of the body: how the physical affects identity, how chronic illness and disability affect creative practice, exploring interactions with their own or other bodies.
